*EBITDA= EBIT + depreciation + impairment expenses

In the six months period 2017 more unfavourable operating result (EBIT) has been realised compared to the same period last year. This is the result of lower sales margins in segments flour and trading.

Other than lower sales margins in two forementioned segments, increase in operating costs, such as transportation costs and cost of employees, contributed to the decrease in operating result.

Net financial result represents the difference between financial revenues and financial expenses.

In the first six months 2017, total debt to financial institutions is decreased by net 21 million HRK, while increase in financial liabilities refers, among others, to financial credit notes issued to settle regressive liabilities in the amount of 20 million HRK.

Remaining regressive liabilities as at 30 June 2017 amount 65 million HRK and are stated within other current liabilities.

All forementioned regressive liabilities are related to business relations with the Agrokor group and as at 30 June 2017 amount to 85 million HRK.

Overview of the business operations for the six months of 2017 per business segments

The Company monitors its business operations through four business segments:

1. Flour
2. Sowing material (wholesale of: fertilizers, protective materials and seeds)
3. Trading (wholesale of grains, oil crops and bakery products)
4. Other (rendering services of storage, drying and reception of grains and oil crops at the reception stations, cattle breeding, other)

Sales income per business segments is shown by the following chart:

Flour

Decrease in income from sales of flour is the result of lower sales prices. Average sales price in the six months period 2017 is 9% lower than the average sales price of flour in the six months period 2016.

Average value of basic raw material (wheat) used in the production is lower in the six months period 2017 compared to the same period last year by 4%.

Everything above implies that the sales margins made in the flour segment are lower than those made in the same period last year.

Sowing material

Income from sale of sowing material is at almost the same level as in the comparing period.

Trading

Trading segment has made decreased sales in the six months period 2017 compared to the six months period 2016. The most significant fall is made in sales of wheat.

Other

Sales income in the Other segment is comprised of re-invoiced transportation and fuel costs, income from rendering the service of goods reception at the reception stations, income from storage and drying goods, and income from cattle breeding. It is important to state that silo is used to meet needs of segments Flour and income in the six months period 2017 is lower compared to the previous period because in 2017 the volume of cattle breeding and re-invoicing is lower. Income generated by drying and goods reception is subjected to seasonality and is mainly realized in the second half of the year.

Employees

In the six months period 2017 the Company employed 182 employees based on man-hour basis (in the six months period 2016: 160 employees)

Redemption of treasury shares

Based on the General Assembly decision as of 9 June 2016 the Company has transferred a portion of the profit earned in 2015 into the equity reserves for treasury shares in the amount of HRK 800 thousand.

Up to the publication of the Management Board report, the Company was not engaged in any activities relating to the redemption of own shares

Environment

Regarding the environmental protection, the Company has implemented comprehensive and systematic solutions and established environment-friendly production processes

Other

Supervisory Board has approved Company's financial statements for the six months period of 2017.
